

Vocabulary List 2 Sample Sentences

1. My entire family are doctors or nurses, so when I decided to become a writer, my family saw my decision as a serious aberration.
2. The acrid smell coming from the biology lab let me know that we would be doing a dissection in class today.
3. The freeway signs in Los Angeles make me nervous because they are so ambiguous.
4. After a breach of a contract between two people, one person usually has to take some consequence, such as paying a fine.
5. My sister was very despondent after our dog died, so I asked her how she was doing and we talked about her feelings.
6. My history book always has excerpts from historical books that famous people have written.
7. I was very indignant after I saw so many people cutting in line at the basketball game to get inside.
8. One of my favorite classes in high school was called 'on morality,' where we learned about and discussed lots of life issues, and what we believed about them.
9. My brother, who is two years older than me, would always patronize me, since he thought he was so much wiser.
10. Before I hand in my tests, I always check for mistakes, and then rectify any errors that I find.
11. I was craving a good burrito, so I went to my favorite restaurant to satiate my hunger.
12. I have been reading this book of poetry where the poet has lots of short lines which makes the tone feel very terse.
13. When I am in the mountains, I feel like my spirit can transcend any obstacle that stands in my way, that is the power of nature for me.
14. I always try to be very vigilant about not getting anything on my clothes when I eat...although I usually have at least one stain on my shirt by the end of the meal anyways.
15. The whimsical child was spinning in circles as the rain fell all around her, which made me long for the days of childhood again.